

Homeownership Program Selection and Deselection Policy

Rev. February 2022

Habitat for Humanity of Orange County, North Carolina (“HHOC”), is committed to providing affordable, descent housing to first-time homebuyers living and working in Orange County through HHOC’s Homeownership Program (“The Program” or “Program”). Eligibility for The Program will be determined by evaluating an applicant’s ability to repay a home loan, commitment to the program, and demonstrated need for affordable housing. Eligibility for The Program shall not be made on the basis of race, sex, color, age, disability, religion, marital status, or whether the applicant’s income is derived from public assistance programs.

Homeownership Program Selection Procedures

- A. Homeowner Selection: The Homeowner Services Team (“HOS”) will solicit applications for The Program as needed to meet the housing production of the Construction Services Team (“CST”). From these applications, HOS will use its procedures to identify the pool of applicants from the application cycle who 1) timely completed the application, and 2) met the eligibility requirements of The Program. HOS will then submit this pool of eligible applicants to the Homeownership Program Selection Committee (“HPSC”) for an evaluation of each eligible applicant’s 1) ability to repay home loans provided by The Program, 2) commitment to The Program, and 3) need for affordable housing. In addition, HOS will provide information to HPSC concerning the housing capacity and the funding available to the Program for the application cycle. When completing their evaluation, members of the HPSC should consider information furnished by eligible applicants in that applicant’s completed application and through applicant interviews conducted by HPSC members and HHOC staff. After considering these evaluations, the available housing capacity, and the funding available to The Program, HPSC shall recommend a slate of eligible applicants to HHOC’s Board of Directors (“The Board”) for selection into The Program. The Board must select an eligible applicant for The Program by unanimous consent.
- B. Application Eligibility Requirements: Applicants must timely submit the application provided by HOS for the application cycle. To be considered the application must be clear, complete, and submitted in good faith with all required supplemental documentation. In addition, Applicants must meet the eligibility requirements of the program as identified immediately below (items 1-5).
- 1. Marital status: All marital statuses will be considered (single, unmarried, separated, divorced, widowed, or married). Applicants will need to provide official documentation if divorced.
