

Tammy Baldwin Puts Wisconsin First

Tammy Baldwin is doing right by Wisconsin because she puts Wisconsin first

- She introduced Buy America legislation, endorsed by President Trump, to help rebuild our infrastructure by requiring the use of American made iron and steel.
- She is working with Republican Senator John McCain to crack down on drug companies that increase prescription drug prices without adequate reason, like on the epi-pen
- Working with the Wisconsin family of a veteran who died, she wrote and passed Jason's Law which reformed the V-A's opioid prescribing guidelines, expanded treatment options, and strengthened the oversight of the V-A to ensure that veterans receive the quality of care they should have.
- She is working to expand treatment options for opioid and heroin addiction and introduced legislation that would require training for prescribers so they can prevent addiction.
- She is standing up to Washington special interests by putting Wisconsin first.
- Tammy Baldwin cares deeply about Wisconsin and will always do right by us because she is one of us
