Life Community Church Hosts MEGA Sports Camp, June 6-8

Ada, Okla., May 14, 2013 – If you're looking for an opportunity for your children (1st through 6th grade) to have some early summer fun -- developing their sporting skills while learning character-building lessons -- Life Community Church (LCC) has got you covered.

June 6-8, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., the Ada-based church is hosting the MEGA Sports Camp, Breaking Free, a free, community outreach program with sporting activities that include: soccer, basketball, flag football and cheerleading. These evening sports activities will include coaching, practice drills and games in addition to character-building exercises, videos and group interaction. First grade through 6th grade children at all skill levels are invited to attend. All events and activities will take place on the grounds of Life Community Church at 330 East 14th Street.

The event is based on the popular national MEGA Sports Camp program, which has been launched in cities throughout the U.S., according to LCC Children's Pastor Jeanelle Reese, who is also the coordinator for the LCC event.

Volunteers from LCC and the members of community will staff the event and there will be a First Aid Station on site each evening during the three days of the MEGA Sports Camp. Each sporting event will include a volunteer staff led by four designated LCC sports team coaches, including: Jill Clark, Cheerleading Coach; Curtis Reese, Flag Football Coach; Katelynn McCloud, Soccer Coach; and Jeremy Moore, Basketball Coach.

"As part of our community outreach, we, at Life Community Church want to give children in our area an opportunity to learn more about sports, hone their skills, have fun and of equal importance, to learn how sports can provide lessons in personal development and spiritual growth," LCC Senior Pastor Mickey Keith said.

In addition to the three-day event on Thursday (June 6), Friday, (June 7) and Saturday, (June 8), there will also be a special recognition ceremony for the children at the LCC Sunday morning service at 10:00 a.m. on June 9. All participating sports camp children and their parents are invited to attend this ceremony.

Pre-Registration for the LCC Mega Sports Camp will continue through May 31st and to ensure a place in this year's event Pastor Reese encourages parents to register for the camp early. The registration form can be picked up or requested from LCC. For more information about the 2013 LCC MEGA Sports Camp, contact Life Community Church at 580-427-6230.
